Dave Thompson combines his passion for logic and his innate skill with numbers to help small businesses and their owners increase profits, reduce tax liabilities and push through the opportunities and issues that strengthen businesses. He excels at establishing a strong and personal relationship with both domestic and international clients, and actively collaborates with them on business needs and issues. As an attentive and responsive advisor, Dave relates well to clients. He merges his private industry background with his public accounting knowledge, to help clients' reach their financial goals.

Having grown up in San Diego, Dave is familiar with the area, people and culture. Prior to joining Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP, Dave managed his own accounting practice. In addition, he previously held Controller/CFO positions within the construction & real estate industries assisting those companies who helped shape San Diego. Dave was impressed with H&B and its focus on forward thinking. He joined the Firm in 2005.

Dave has been a participant at the PKF International Tax Conference and the Procopio International Tax Institute, a presenter at the La Jolla Trust & Probate Group, a presenter at the SDSU Accounting 659: Seminar US International Tax, and a contributor for the San Diego Business Journal.

Dave received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (Accounting) from San Diego State University and holds a Certificate in Construction and is a Construction Industry Technician, NAWIC.
