Karen Semingson excels at connecting with clients and identifying tax saving opportunities through innovative approaches. She has extensive experience providing audit and compliance services to a wide range of small to medium sized businesses, as well as several nonprofit organizations. Her approach is simple; listen, collaborate, research and put together a plan that is right for the client. Karen's expertise also includes financial statement preparation for businesses and individual clients, and consulting services with QuickBooks accounting software.

Karen works with closely-held companies and provides technical accounting guidance. She has experience in a diverse set of industries, including professional service companies, manufacturing and distribution, agriculture, commercial real estate, nonprofit organizations, and 401K plan auditing.

Prior to joining Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP, Karen spent several years with local Northern California firms. Karen joined the Firm in 1999 and was named Partner in 2005. She is a member of the Firm's Accounting and Auditing Committee.

Karen is involved with various organizations including the Firm's Accounting and Auditing Committee, United Way of Santa Cruz County, CASA of Santa Cruz County, Santa Cruz County Business Council, Capitola Aptos Rotary Club, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and California Society of CPAs.
