With strong expertise in auditing, Steve Throop excels at summarizing complex data to help clients find solutions to tax and financial questions. Clients appreciate Steve's approach. He listens, takes into account needs and working styles, stays within the rules, and gives independent feedback. Notably, Steve has developed forecasting models that allow clients, both established and emerging business owners, to see their potential future financial statements and identify and change the driving factors to achieve profitable results. Steve also works with employee benefit plans, and non-profit organizations to meet their compliance needs.

As a native of Pennsylvania, Steve craved warm weather and calm winters. He moved to San Diego in the late 70's and worked in both audit and tax practices of large national and regional CPA firms. Steve then co-founded Logan Throop & Co, and operated as a small business entrepreneur for 15 years before that firm combined with Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP in 2001. Steve is currently the Partner-in-Charge of the San Diego office.

Steve is involved with many organizations including American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, California Society of CPAs, served as past President of the San Diego Chapter of the California Society of CPAs, served on the State Council, is a Board Member of the San Diego Fire Rescue Foundation, and is a member of Vistage, a Global CEO Group.

Steve is an alumni of Pennsylvania State University.
