Glendale, CA 91203

With more than 30 years of experience in public accounting serving privately held and family businesses, Bill Eckenrod is skilled at connecting with clients, and providing ways to increase their wealth and profits, while also saving on taxes. Bill excels at taking complex tax and financial problems, and breaking them down into simple and understandable scenarios. He then works closely with the client and provides appropriate and profitable solutions.

Bill's primary areas of practice include tax and general business advice, business planning, taxation issues, accounting, auditing, and estate planning and he has extensive experience in individual, corporate, partnership, and estate taxation. He provides an exceptional level of service and a proven dedication to the needs of his clients and their businesses. Not only is he a trusted financial advisor, he takes the extra step and is often perceived as a personal business advisor. Bill joined Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP in 1979, and was named Partner in 1983. In 2013, Bill was the recipient of the Trusted Advisor Award given by the San Fernando Valley Business Journal.

Bill is a member of the California Society of CPAs and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He is involved with numerous local charitable and community service organizations including Boy Scouts of America.

Bill received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona.
