

Richard Preciado, CPA
Managing Partner, Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP

rpreciado@hbllp.com
3205 South Dogwood Avenue
El Centro, CA 92243

As the Firm's Managing Partner, Richard Preciado embodies both leadership skills and business acumen. He provides a variety of tax planning services, including cost segregation and helping clients set up IC-DISC as a strategy to minimize taxes. Richard was integral in helping develop the Firm's expertise in cost segregation and the construction industry. Clients benefit from his exceptional tax and business consulting experience, along with the accumulated brain power of his fellow partners. Richard is thorough, proactive, and helps clients lessen tax liabilities and make more financially robust decisions.

Prior to joining Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP in 1993, Richard worked with a regional public accounting firm. He was elected Partner in 2000 and then named Managing Partner in 2006.

Richard is involved with numerous organizations including the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Kiwanis Club of El Centro, the City of El Centro's Planning Commission, the El Centro Education Foundation, and is a lifetime member of the Golden Key National Honor Society.

Richard received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in Accounting from San Diego State University.

